

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 2-B

WASHINGTON TIMES
25 February 1986

M.J. McManus, ex-CIA agent

Michael James McManus, 51, a retired agent for the Central Intelligence Agency, died of a kidney ailment Feb. 17 in Georgetown University Hospital.

Mr. McManus, a native of New York, lived in Potomac since 1974.

He served in the Marines for three years and attended the University of Maryland before joining the CIA in 1958. He served in West Germany and Greece before retiring in 1974.

He was a member of the of the Knights of Columbus and of Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church in Potomac. He was also a member of the Bald Peak Colony Club in Melvin Village, N.H., where he spent summers with his family.

He is survived by his wife, Muffin McManus, and a daughter, Catherine Ann McManus, of Potomac.

The family suggests expressions of sympathy be in the form of contributions to the Cabin John Park Volunteer Fire Department, 9404 Falls Rd., Potomac, Md., or the Visiting Nurse Association, 1842 Mintwood Pl. NW.